This high school Career Exploration course was created in 1998 for my daughter to learn about different careers.

This is not a product.

We are just sharing our own notes to inspire you in your own lesson planning.

I used a variety of resources and focused on interviewing people from a variety of different careers.

Warmly,
Meredith Curtis & Laura Nolette

Course Requirements for

Career Exploration

Textbook

The Holy Bible

Supplemental

What Color is Your Parachute

Lifepac 904: Planning a Career

Guide to College Majors & Career Choices

The Pathfinder

Finding the Career that Fits You workbook

Grandma's Old Cadette Handbook pg, 81-104

Assignments

Look up Col.3:22-4:1, Eph.2:10 and II Thes.3:6-15. What do these verses teach about work and careers? How can you apply these verses to your life?

Complete Lifepac.

Complete Workbook.

Fill out "Occupational Skills Interview" worksheets by interviewing 20 people in a variety of career fields. For each career (on back of worksheet) explain how career could benefit a homemaker and how (if at all) she could use it to do something out of her home).

Discuss with Mom and Dad your top 5 career choices. What will happen with those careers when you marry and become a homemaker? What ideas do you have to bring in extra money as a homemaker if you ever need to? Make a list of goals and plans together including work experience, college choices, and other steps to your chosen career(s).

Grading

To get a B grade, complete all assignments. Written work must be good. Career ideas must show thought and prayer.

To get an A grade, complete all assignments. Written work must be excellent. Career ideas must show deep thought and earnest seeking of the Lord.
